Indians On the War Path

The members of Wyandotte Tribe I. O. R. M. are preparing for a great time next Tuesday evening. A special dispensation will be secured and all three degrees will be conferred on all candidates in waiting.

Following the conference of the degrees, the Tribe will indulge in an old time "Pot-latch." Now, to the uninitiated, that means that after a big round up of pale faces and their adoption into the Tribe, a great feast is held. The following Big Indians are the committee on 'Pot-latch:" Ernie Ort, Alton Schatzmann, W. H. Cablish, R. Fulton Redden and J. H Richardson.

Now if you don't think these Indians don't know what Indians like to eat just come to the Tribe next Tuesday evening. There will be everything from "mustard" to toothpicks, including a big 'smoke-'em-up." No Redman should miss this one big time.

BRYAN may be like Moses-not able to get over into the promised land but he has lead the lost tribes of Israel right up to the Jordon. -Carlisle Mercury, Democrat.

If Mr. BRYAN is such a wise and great statesman, and is such a "Moses" as you claim, why do you not stick to him for President and run his name at your masthead as the standard bearer of National Democracy in 1912? However, probably you are like the rank and file of your party, you merely yell for BRYAN, the free silver crank, and vote for some other man. If the Republicans are now advocating Mr. BRYAN's theories, as the Democrats claim, why not trot out the "Peerless one" and give him the honor that you say is due him?

Rose Stahl on "Slovenly Women."

She shrugged her shoulders with a gesture of disgust.

"Nor do I want to talk about slovenly women,"she exclaimed.

"There is no excuse for them. No matter how good a woman may think she is, if she is one of the kind who is addicted to dingy kimonas, or whose waist and skirt are eternally at war, or if she offers you a game of chance to guess how many buttons will be missing when she appears-then there is surely something morally wrong with her. TWO GENTLEMEN.

A well-known Kansas Banker told a story to The Kansas City Journal the other day about the statute of limitations. One day an old Southerner walked into this Banker's office. The Southerner was a typical gentleman of the old-school. "What can I do for you?" asked the Banker.

"Well," replied the Southerner, "about thirty-five years ago I loaned a man down South some money-not a very big sum. I told him that whenever I should need it I would let him know and he could pay me the monsy. I need some money now, so I shall let him know, and I would like to have you transact the business for me."

"My good friend," replied the Banker, "you have no claim on that money. The statute of limitations has run against that loan years and years ago."

"Sir," replied the Southerner, "the man to whom loaned that money is a gentleman. The statute of limitations never runs against a gentleman.'

So the Banker sent for the money. And within a reasonable time thereafter the money came. There was a courtly gentleman at the other end of the transaction

Margaret Stahl

The seventh number on the Maysville High School Entertainment and Lecture ('ourse was Miss Margaret Stahl, the noted reader and recitationist. Miss Stahl drew a large audience at the High School Auditorium last evening and all who were fortunate enough to be present were not only charmed by her efforts, but carried away by the strong personality and feminine force she displayed.

The one person, monologue artist, of course Miss Stahl was "it" last night. Her delivery, While some of the finest pieces evolved by the furni- pronunciation, "speaking gestures," her pliant and resonart voice, changed in an instant from the childish trebble to the deepest baritone, together with a mastery of stage presence and action, combined with beautiful coetumes, all made for an evening of intense interest and
